Dear Industry Partners,

It is with great pleasure and honor that I extend a warm welcome to you all to the upcoming 11th Annual Meeting of the Serbian Neurosurgical Society with International participation. The topic of our gathering will be “Ethico-legal Aspects of Neurosurgery in the 21st Century: Challenges and Opportunities,” taking place from October 23-26, 2025 in Novi Sad, Serbia. This prestigious meeting will be hosted by the Clinic for Neurosurgery at the University Clinical Center of Vojvodina, and will be a joint venture with the Association of Neurosurgeons of Southeast Europe and the EANS Ethico-Legal Committee.

We understand that the rapid development of neurosurgical technologies brings with it profound opportunities as well as complex challenges. This congress will serve as an essential platform for discussing these intricacies, highlighting how industry partners play a crucial role in shaping the future of neurosurgical practice.

We hope you will be a part of the team that will help us organize this important event.
