WELCOME ADDRESS

Dear colleagues and friends,

I am thrilled to extend an invitation to you for our upcoming 11th SNSS Annual Meeting with international participation entitled “Ethico-Legal Aspects in Neurosurgery in the 21st Century: Challenges and Opportunities”; which will take place in the beautiful city of Novi Sad, Serbia, from October 23 to 26, 2025.

We are delighted that we will have the opportunity to host a Joint ventures with the EANS Ethico-Legal Committee, Turkish Neurosurgical Society, and the Southeast Europe Neurosurgical Society - SeENS.

The ethico-legal aspects of neurosurgery are of paramount importance in today's rapidly evolving medical landscape. As we witness unprecedented advancements in technology and neuroscience, neurosurgeons face increasingly complex ethical dilemmas and legal challenges that require careful consideration and informed decision-making. By fostering discussions among professionals, researchers, and industry partners, we can develop best practices that not only enhance patient outcomes but also establish a framework for ethical decision-making in neurosurgery. This dialogue is essential for promoting accountability, transparency, and integrity within our field.

The upcoming meeting will provide a platform for these vital conversations, and we encourage all stakeholders to participate actively in shaping the future of neurosurgery through a thoughtful exploration of it. Our program will feature a distinguished lineup of speakers, including renowned experts from various fields, who will share their insights and experiences. We encourage you to engage actively in discussions, as your perspectives are invaluable to fostering a comprehensive understanding of these critical issues.

We are excited to host this important event in Novi Sad, a city known for its rich history, vibrant culture, and commitment to innovation. We encourage you to mark your calendars and join us for what promises to be an inspiring and educational experience.

We look forward to welcoming you to Novi Sad next year, where together we can explore the ethical and legal challenges we face and harness the opportunities that lie ahead.

Thank you, and we hope to see you there!

Cordially,

Prof. dr Lukas Rasulic

Honorary President of the Meeting

Ethico-legal aspects of neurosurgery in the 21st century: Challenges and opportunities

Dear colleagues, dear friends,

As President of SeENS, I am honoured and delighted to invite you to the 11th SNSS Annual Meeting that will take place in Novi Sad, Serbia, between 23 and 26 October 2025. The meeting organized by the Serbian Neurosurgical Society addresses both its national members and neurosurgeons all over Europe and worldwide. For this meeting, SNSS has partnered with the SeENS, Turkish Neurosurgical Society and the EANS Ethico-legal Committee to address a critical facet of neurosurgery, namely "Ethico- legal aspects of neurosurgery in the 21st century: challenges and opportunities".

SeENS took shape more than 12 years ago as a result of the remarkable efforts of several enthusiastic and authentic road-openers, such as our friends Lukas Rasulic, Kresimir Rotim, and Tomislav Sajko, as well as many other leaders of their national societies who have brought their extraordinary contribution and experience to the continuous growth and development of SeENS. Nowadays, SeENS is considered one of the most active regional societies, a recognized member of EANS and WFNS, thoroughly involved in developing regional, scientific and professional cooperation, but mainly dedicated to educating new generations of neurosurgeons.

Along with SNSS, we wish to contribute to the constant development of neurosurgery on a regional and international level, especially in the context of the rapid transformation and emergence of new technologies where collaboration and adaptation become of utmost importance. I am confident that the scientific program will provide a comprehensive overview of the latest research, advancements, and breakthroughs in neurosurgery, here within the ethico-legal aspects included, so that we can provide our patients with the best possible care.

It is with great pleasure and excitement that I invite you to participate in this meeting, take advantage of the shared knowledge and expertise, and also use this opportunity to connect with colleagues, exchange ideas, and build lasting professional relationships.

Best regards,

Prof. Ioan Stefan Florian, MD, PhD
SeENS President,
Honorary President of the Meeting

Ethico-legal aspects of neurosurgery in the 21st century: Challenges and opportunities

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

It is both a pleasure and a privilege to convey my sincere regards on behalf of the Turkish Neurosurgical Society, as we come together with our esteemed colleagues from the Serbian Neurosurgical Society for the 11th SNSS Annual Meeting, taking place in the beautiful city of Novi Sad from October 23 to 26, 2025.

This year's theme, "Ethico-Legal Aspects of Neurosurgery in the 21st Century: Challenges and Opportunities," touches on a vital and timely topic. As neurosurgeons, we find ourselves navigating not only rapid technological advancements but also evolving ethical questions and increasingly complex legal landscapes. This meeting offers an invaluable opportunity to explore these issues through open dialogue and shared expertise.

We are especially proud to contribute to this important gathering through the TNS Neuroanatomy Group's pre-congress course, and to co-host a joint scientific session that will add further depth and perspective to the program.

Beyond the academic exchange, this congress also reinforces the spirit of collaboration and friendship between our societies—an essential element in addressing the challenges we face as a global neurosurgical community.

I would like to sincerely thank Prof. Lukas Rasulic and the organizing committee for their kind invitation and their efforts in bringing this meaningful event to life. I look forward to seeing many of you in Novi Sad for what promises to be a rewarding and memorable experience.

With sincere regards,

Prof. Hayri Kertmen

Honorary President of the Meeting

Ethico-legal aspects of neurosurgery in the 21st century: Challenges and opportunities

Dear colleagues, distinguished guests, and friends,

With immense pleasure and great honor, I welcome you all to the upcoming 11th Annual Meeting of the Serbian Neurosurgical Society with International participation. The topic of our gathering will be “Ethico- legal Aspects of Neurosurgery in the 21st Century: Challenges and Opportunities,” from October 23-26, 2025, in Novi Sad, Serbia. This prestigious meeting will be hosted by the Clinic for Neurosurgery at the University Clinical Center of Vojvodina and will be a joint venture with the Southeast Europe Neurosurgical Society (SeENS), Turkish Neurosurgical Society, and the EANS Ethico-Legal Committee.

The 21st century has seen rapid advancements in medical science and surgical technology, presenting both groundbreaking opportunities and complex ethical and legal challenges in neurosurgical practice. This congress is dedicated to exploring these multifaceted issues, providing a platform where leading experts, practitioners, and scholars can come together to share insights, foster dialogue, and find common ground for navigating the dynamic landscape of neurosurgical care.

We would have been privileged to have an esteemed lineup of speakers and participants who would contribute their knowledge, research, and perspectives. Through engaging presentations, interactive sessions, and collaborative workshops, we aim to deepen our understanding of the ethical dilemmas, legal responsibilities, and practical solutions that define modern neurosurgical practice. Addressing these topics cannot be understated, as they directly impact patient outcomes, professional integrity, and the trust placed in our field. As such, our gathering is a meeting of minds and a commitment to uphold the highest standards in neurosurgery through a shared commitment to ethics, legality, and professional excellence.

Beyond the scientific program, I encourage you all to take advantage of the opportunities to network, form connections, and enjoy the cultural richness of our host city. Together, let us make this congress a cornerstone for future collaborations and advancements.

Once again, welcome, and I look forward to an enriching and memorable congress with each of you.
